MEANING OF—. Government of India forwarding a copy of the Secretary of State's Despatch pointing out that the—was understood in India to be such that the distillers, on payment of a lump sum, were free to brew as much spirit as they liked and to sell it wherever they liked, described the real meaning of the system and enquired to what extent it is preferred to the system of Central distillery. It was pointed out by the Government of India that the Secretary of State noticed the passages in periodical reports of Local Governments which read as if the increase of revenue was the paramount object of good Excise administration.
